“ Darrell was a sincere friend for many years. His smile was ever present and made everyone around him very relaxed and comfortable. We shared many wonderful memories at the lake and endless laughter at our investment club. He was a wonderful person and friend.

“ I worked for Darrell for years. A kinder boss you couldn't ask for. His family always came first, and he was so proud of his kids. So sorry to hear you're gone, Boss. Rest in peace.

With Love,

“ Darrell and I were teachers together in New Hartford nearly 50 years ago, roommates in Farmington and sail-boat-mates one summer in Falmouth, Massachusetts. It was then and there that Darrell met Donna and, one Sunday morning, went out in his green Corvette and came back with Barbara, later to become my wife. She and I (and our children) are eternally grateful for that, and the fifty years of friendship we shared with this truly wonderful man. He will be missed by all.

“ Darrell was a friend of mine throughout our public schooling in New Britain, CT. We played clarinet together in school orchestras and bands, starting in the Chamberlain School orchestra at age 9 in third grade. I'm sorry to learn the sad news of his passing and will always remember him as a good friend.
