“ Oh.I loved you so much Auntie Jean. You were more than just my Aunt, you were also my Godmother, and you never, ever forgot to send me a birthday card, even though I'm now 65. I'll miss the Easter Card and Christmas cards. You were always so thoughtful.

I loved your laugh and your smile. and never saw tears.I enjoyed my young years at the cottage in Clinton. Always urging Uncle Earl to throw me in the water he could never catch me. Rushing me to the hospital with DKA, and worrying by my side until my Mom could get to New Britain. I have the pottery Santa you made for me, and even if I don't decorate like I used to, the Santa statue is still put in a prominent place each year. You and Mom were so close, I know you looked upon her as if she was your mom. I always felt so very close to you, even though I hadn't seen you in years. I always remember your birthday. Now, you and Mom are chatting it up big time. I'm looking forward to the day when we'll all be together again.
God bless you, with all my love and tears...Wendy

“ Please know that my thoughts and prayers are with everyone.

Auntie Jean was my absolute favorite person in the whole wide world! I adored her as a child and still do at age 60! I always cherished the time I spent with her. Some of my best childhood memories were made with Auntie Jean, Uncle Earl and my cousins. I will never forget the time when I was about 11 or 12 and was spending time with them in CT in the summer. Auntie Jean and I sat down and literally ate 14 ears of corn each!! Years later we would laugh about that and not know how we ever managed to eat so many ears of corn!

Boy did Auntie Jean love to take pictures when we were growing up! I always called her the shutter bug! She was such a good photographer and loved taking pictures!

There were such great memories on the SS Da Jon. I was honored to be invited to take the trip by boat from CT to Ft. Lauderdale and spending two weeks with Auntie Jean and Uncle Earl. That was the year the engine blew.

I was asked at a conference who I admired the most in my life. My response came very quickly and was a no brainer. I responded that I have two people I admire the most in my life, my mom and my Auntie Jean. Auntie Jean was the most loving, fun, and caring person who was genuine to the core. She and my mom were my shining stars. My Mom Shirley DeMers was like her mother and I have to say that Auntie Jean was a like a mom to me. Losing a parent is a tough one to swallow. After losing both my parents, I had a closer bond than ever with Auntie Jean.

I always loved getting Auntie Jean's letters in the mail and looked forward to her newsy letters about what she was up to... She always kept me up to speed with what was going on in her and Uncle Earl's life, my cousins, their kids, great grandkids, the great food she had at all the great restaurants she went to and her precious Dharla she loved so much! She lived life for her family and loved spending time with them!

I am so glad that I got to spend time with Auntie Jean and Uncle Earl last year when Pete and I came up to CT. We had the best time at a German Restaurant in New Britain! We laughed, reminisced about our lives and told jokes! It was the best time! I just wish it hadn't been the last time! Pete and I were just talking about coming up in the fall and how much I looked forward to visiting with Auntie Jean and Uncle Earl again and how we would take them out to dinner again!

I know Auntie Jean, that you were greeted by your loved ones at those pearly white gates in heaven when you arrived this morning. I too will see you one day at those pearly white gates.

As I look in the clouds and talk to my mom, I will also find you on the cloud next to her and talk to you too. I know that you are looking down and watching over everyone here that loves and misses you.

I love you so much! Love, Barbara
