“ Sincere condolences to the entire family of Mr. Fuller.

We get to meet and interact with many people in our lives. Rarely do we get to have a teacher from the ranks of the absolute very best (in the front row), 'Mr. Fuller', Teacher of the year for every year!

I was blessed with having Mr. Fuller as my Industrial Arts Teacher in Jr High School. I had many teachers, instructors, professors and educators through life but only one, Mr. Fuller.

I was one of many students in his IA classes for a couple years. He gave more than what his job description required. Consider, he was the Niagara Falls of educational instruction for those who wanted to learn. To translate, he went well beyond the course curriculum to those reaching out to his extreme knowledge and abilities. He had a photo shop (club) and allowed me to take part in it. It was indeed a privilege but that was who he was if you only reached out, he would always be there and never let you down.

I think of him very often as I toil with many projects. There is very little I can't do because of the work ethic he instilled and taught. How to do it right was also who he was. He quickly became a reward in my life and I will never forget him.

I don't feel worthy to use his first name so I will conclude with a 'thank you', Mr. Fuller!

“ John was my next door neighbor, Cub Scout and Boy Scout leader, camping friend and the father of three exceptional children. He ran camp Kemosahabe for a number of year and was instrumental in my earning the eagle badge. He was a mentor to me as I pursued my education as an industrial arts teacher. I am proud to have known him as a friend.

“ We have only known John for thirteen years and are proud to have called John our friend. Because of John's love of adventure and travel and Airstreams is how we first met. John quickly became a part of our extended family along with his two sons Bard and Russ and their wonderful wives Kathleen and Rhona. Our thoughts and prayers to the whole Fuller Clan and be sure that John will always be a big part of our memories of Airstreaming.

“ Mr Fuller was my 7th and 9th grade industrial arts teacher-Central Jr High 1955. He was very patient and kind to me, I had no ability. Tried to duplicate his personality as a high school teacher for 34 years. Al Miller

“ I never knew Mr. Fuller but know Tanya well. She married my awesome nephew, Christopher. I've got a strong feeling he was a wonderful kind man. My favorite picture of Mr. Fuller shows him playing and talking with Tinleigh. I could see his warmhearted love just from the expression on his face. Many prayers for the family as they find strength in His arms. Susan Dail

“ We had the wonderful opportunity to become acquainted with John...and later, Grace...at the Land Yacht Harbor Airstream Park in Florida. John had unbounded enthusiasm for life and for Airstreaming and all it encompassed. He was always available to help promote the Park and anything dealing with Airstreams...and he did this with such wit, charm and knowledge! He will be sorely missed at LYH and we extend our deepest condolences to that wonderful Grace and his family.

“ I was sad to learn of John's passing via his obituary posted on the Internet, and offer my deepest, though belated, condolences to his family. John and I first became acquainted via snail mail and the Internet almost 20 years ago when I contacted him in connection with a family history project I was working on. Yes, John and I are distant cousins because my gr. gr. grandfather, John Mitchell, and his gr. gr. grandfather, William Mitchell, both born in England, were brothers. John had compiled a record of his family tree which he kindly shared with me and we continued to correspond and exchange Christmas cards over the years.

Six or seven years ago we were in New Britain attending a memorial service for one of my favorite professors. After the reception that followed the service, held in Berlin or Kensington, my wife and I took the opportunity to call John. Luckily, we found him in, motored over, and spent several delightful hours conversing with John and Grace while seated on their front lawn. I did not know John as well or for as long as many of those who have registered comments on this page but it was obvious that he liked people and these feelings were mutual. Rest in peace dear cousin.
