“ I never thought I would ever have to write this as I always thought my grandpa would always be there. He was always happy and always had a smile on his face. He made people smile and sometimes giggle when he would try to communicate with them, even though he didn't English. But he would still try. He loved walking everywhere and was an avid runner in his younger years. Towards the end, he told me all he wanted to do was go running once again. Grandpa, I hope you are running again. I hope you get to watch all the 'futbol' you want. I miss you and love you.

“ Tomas, a gentle man, at church sitting in the back row of seats with that warm and friendly smile on his face is my sweet memory of him.
One of my fondest memories of him, and there are many, was the day when he stood up in church and sang a favorite hymn of his that touched my heart and I believe many other hearts there that day.
He will be dearly missed.
Praying for the Lord's comfort for those of his dear family.

“ We are rich to have known Señor Tomás, such a dignified and kind gentleman. It was a joy to worship our Lord together, especially knowing the sacrifices he made overcoming language and physical challenges to attend services as he was able. I will miss his heart-filled singing of favorite hymns. I wish I could have had more conversations with this deep and patient dear man who was long suffering with my very limited Spanish.

“ Tomas was such a dear man. He always had a big smile on his face and he brought happiness to everyone around him.

Tomas was a great inspiration to me to just keep moving and to continually praise God for all that He has blessed me with.
