“ I am sending you all my deepest heartfelt condolences! Your mom was very sweet, and always had a nice smile! She would come in to my moms foodsite for lunch at 118 Bond St in New Britain years ago, my moms name was Lucille. She ran the foodsite for many years. We would always sit with your mom/grandma, and talk for a while. I still have some of her rosary beads that she would bring in to lunch! My mom and I, enjoyed her coming in to have lunch, and her smile lit up the room! My mom also loved butterflies 🦋, I bet she has a pretty one waiting for her! May she Rest In Peace! Hold on to all the memories, they will last forever!

“ April 28, 2020
Noni, your love and your spirit will live on in so many of us. I looked up to you and always relied on you and Grandpa for guidance and wisdom. I will never forget everything you've said to me to help me thru my job and life situations. You both understood me so well. I admired both of you and will always remember the good times to help me thru because that's what I need the most... To smile thru this difficult time.. And you always made me smile. I commend you on your courage the last few years and will always remember that when times get tough again for me. Your love and beauty will always be in my heart and mind and I will always think of you. You will be missed dearly. Love, Bridget. P. S. I hope they have the Catholic TV station (EWTN) on for you in Heaven... your favorite!! Mass is on at 4pm! Love you sooo much! Xoxo
