“ I am sorry to hear about the passing of Adam. He was my best man at my wedding back in 1980.

I remember when Adam organized the bus trip back in 1979 to go to the Ukrainian festival in Toronto.

Adam and his orchestra appeared on TV for the Polish program from Springfield.

Adam also set up and played at Shutzen park in New Britain.

Yes, Adam was very active. He is probably organizing events up in heaven.

May he rest in peace.

“ When he was younger, Adam was an enthusiastic accordion player. I remember when he and his young family would come to visit my parents, he invariably had his accordion with him. My parents would very happily listen to his impromptu accordion 'concerts'. Miss those times.

Adam did pass that love of the accordion on to his son, Michael.

Adam was a steady voice and vote for working people on the New Britain Common Council and the Democratic Town Committee.

You could also catch him every Monday night at Roma's for Monday Night Football with us old Democratic vets.

Thanks Adam!
