

Adam J. Schienda

July 20, 1984 - September 2, 2019

Adam J. Schienda, 35, of Farmington, husband of Melissa Guay, passed away Monday (September 2, 2019) at St. Francis Hospital in Hartford. Born in New Britain, son of Donna (Loiselle) Schienda of Farmington and the late Alan B. Schienda, Sr., Adam was a former Bristol resident moving to Farmington in 2016. Adam attended Manchester Community College and was a cook at several area restaurants. As a final gesture in his memory, Adam's usable organs were donated to be used by others that needed transplants.

Besides his wife Melissa and his mother Donna, he is survived by four stepchildren, Jessica, Jennifer, Zachary and Jaden; a brother, Alan Schienda, Jr. of Farmington; a sister, Alonna Pitreau and her husband Brian of Falmouth, ME; two nieces and a nephew, Eliza, Caroline and Desmond Pitreau; as well as aunts, uncles and many friends.

Private graveside services will be held at Riverside Cemetery in Farmington. There are no calling hours. The Carlson Funeral Home, New Britain is assisting with arrangements. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in Adam's memory to New England Donor Services, 60 First Avenue, Waltham, MA 02451.
