

Agnes "Aggie" (Bane) Hively

December 7, 1960 - February 22, 2017

Agnes "Aggie" (Bane) Hively, 56, of New Britain, wife of William Hively, passed away Wednesday (Feb 22, 2017) at the Hospital of Central CT. Born in Willimantic, daughter of Cornelius Bane of Kill Devil Hills, NC, and the late Grace Eleanor (Jacobson) Bane, she lived in East Hampton and Columbia before moving to New Britain in 1991. Aggie was a graduate of Windham High School, Class of 1978, and also was a graduate of the Stone School of Business. She worked in the Office of Dr. Barry Steckler in New Britain for 13 years, and later in the Cardiology Department at the UConn Health Center for the past 5 years.

Besides her husband Bill and father Cornelius, she leaves a son, Michael J. Bane of Newington; a daughter, Victoria Hively and her husband Jack Clark of Holly Ridge, NC; two brothers, Liam Bane and his wife Wanda of Hebron; and Patrick Bane and his wife Rosi in Germany; a sister, Colleen Katz and her husband Jack of Bethesda, MD; and a niece, Rylee Bane.

Family and friends may gather on Sunday after 1 PM with a brief service at 2 PM at Carlson Funeral Home, 45 Franklin square, New Britain. Burial will be at the convenience of the family. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Neag Comprehensive Cancer Center at UConn Health Center, 263 Farmington Avenue #2875, Farmington, CT 06032. “ I'm going to miss Sunday morning breakfast at Captain Al's, our time to catch up. Mother's day brunch at First & Last in Middletown every year and saying we would not go back the following year....But we always did. And sitting on my front porch discussing "The Hood". But mostly I'm going to miss being able to call for no reason. RIP my friend until we meet again...Loved you like you were my sister.
