

Albert J. Muratori

September 7, 1950 - September 17, 2021

Albert J. Muratori, 71, of New Britain, husband of Ruth “Ruthie” (Parent) Muratori, passed away unexpectedly, Friday (September 17, 2021) at the Hospital of Central CT. Born in New Britain, son of the late Dino and Kathleen (Romano) Muratori, he was a lifelong resident of New Britain and a 1968 graduate of New Britain High School. He was a US Navy veteran of the Vietnam War era and a member of the Tin Can Sailors group. Al was employed as Chief Engineer of HVAC at the Travelers in Hartford while working for C.B. Richard Ellis for over 40 years, retiring in 2020.

Al was a huge Civil War enthusiast, visiting Gettysburg National Military Park every July to commemorate the anniversary of the battle. He enjoyed traveling to Cape Cod every summer, to Walt Disney World, and cruising the Caribbean, all with family and friends. He was an exemplary handyman who could fix anything. He loved The Beatles, a cold bottle of Yeungling, and most of all, his family.

Besides his wife Ruthie, he leaves a daughter, Karen Petersen, her husband Tron, and two grandchildren, Willow and Jack, of Newington; a brother, Dean Muratori and his wife Anne of New Britain; a sister, Nancy Moran and her husband Richard Ladizki of Berlin; several nieces, nephews and cousins, and many friends.

“ My brother Al was 8 years older than me, but that did not stop him from doing things with me. one of the memorable things we would play in our living room, was Superman. He would lie on his back and I would run and jump so he could place his feet on my hips and hold my arms in the air. I would sore like Superman while Al sang the Superman song. As I would sore through the fictitious sky being held by Al. I really felt like Superman. Truth is, Al was Superman, my Superman. I will miss you dearly big brother...

“ Sending prayers to the entire family for the sudden loss of Al. Any time I was in CT visiting my Sister (Tron's Mother) it was custom to all be together for dinner as we did in March this year. My heart breaks for the family. This is a family that does everything together and has fun doing it. He will be missed but the family has so many good memories that will live on forever. He will be watching over all of them. Love to you all. Aunt Ria
