“ Al Sheary was truly a good man. Any success that I had in my career was directly the result of his mentorship. He was a good friend too. There is no doubt in my mind that he is joyfully in heaven.

“ I have so many fond memories of Al, his terrific sense of humor and especially his narrative story telling skills. He was a great inspiration and mentor to me during my tenure at the Department of Revenue Services and was always available to offer helpful advice when needed.

If he had any weakness, it was his passion to hold on to cars much beyond their useful life. I can recall one vehicle, I believe it was an Oldsmobile or Buick that dropped its' exhaust system one month and the rear bumper rusted off the following month. I was always more than happy to provide Al a ride home or to the repair shop if needed.

Thanks to Al's strong religious fervor, honesty, kindness and willingness to help all when needed, I have no doubt he is enjoying his time with the angels.
