

Alvin P. Kurwelnz

February 4, 1942 - August 10, 2023

Alvin P. Kurwelnz, 81, of New Britain, longtime companion of Geraldine (Sorbo) Daigle, passed away unexpectedly Thursday (Aug 10, 2023) at home. Born in Rutherford, NJ, he was the son of Edward and Josephine (Rasmus) Kurwelnz. He lived in New Britain since 1986.

Al was a US Army veteran and was stationed in Germany. He was employed at Superior Electric as a Machinist and later was a delivery driver for Arrow Drug, later becoming Beacon Drug. He loved watching the New York Yankees and football games, going to the movies and spending time playing games on the computer.

Besides his partner, Geraldine, Al leaves his step sisters, Alvina Furniss and Deborah Hartman of Bristol; as well as his step brothers, Steven Decker of Plainville, and John Decker of Salt Lake City, UT; in addition to several nieces and nephews.

A Graveside funeral service with military honors will be held Thursday 1PM at the CT State Veterans Cemetery, Bow Lane, Middletown. There are no calling hours. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Alzheimer's Association at <https://act.alz.org>. Carlson Funeral Home, New Britain is assisting with arrangements.
