“ *Uncle Anerd was a great man!
I have several memories of him that always make me smile just thinking about them.
He was the younger brother of my grandmother who I was very close to. I remember Uncle Anerd going to visit Gram almost every week at Jefferson House when she was living there while he was on his way home from church. I remember one occasion when we were there together and he was telling us that Bobby did not want him driving from Madison to New Britain anymore but Uncle Anerd didn't care he took the car anyway and went to see his sister. Boy did they laugh about that one!
I also remember Gram's funeral when Uncle Anerd and I were talking at Angelico's. He told me he couldn't believe his 97 year old sister was gone, he said it was his turn next and then laughed. Bet he never thought his turn would be over 4 years later, when he was 98!!
Well, Uncle Anerd, you are now with Gram and Auntie Marguerite! Probably causing trouble up there, but nonetheless, you guys are together again looking down on all of us!
You will be missed! Please give my Grandmother a hug and kiss from me! I love you!*

“ *I truly will remember how handsome he was. He always had a smile on his face. You knew that he was very much in love with Marguerite by the way he looked at her. His life was his family. Bob and Cheryl he always spoke with pride about both of you.
Love to all of you. Bless you Uncle Anerd.
