“ I can still hear the sounds of Snow White playing on Grandma's record player. I would just sit on grandma's couch and listen to music while she got ready for our day together. My grandma took care of me when I was a little girl. Grandma loved spending time with me, bringing me on errands or to her friends houses. Grandma always made me feel so special, she would talk about me to her friends with such pride. I would have to say my grandma was one of my greatest fans. Grandma was a very special lady, she always saw the good in people, especially the ones she loved. As I got older I wasn't always the role model teenager, but in grandma's eyes I could still do no wrong. Grandma would listen to me and never criticize me, she always understood me, as I did her. Grandma showed her love for me in so many ways. Grandma always worried that I was too busy, that I worked too hard. She would always say she wished I could work less or that she could help me more if she were healthier. Grandma never asked for much, but she did have a sweet tooth. Grandma like her creme filled pastry tarts, that looked like mini-pies, or a canoli. Grandma would even request a good ole fashioned meatball grinder. Well they say the way to mans heart is through his stomache, well I beg to differ, because that was certainly the way to grandma's heart. She never asked for much, she just loved having her family around her, she would just sit at the table and listen to all of us talk, and she didnt even care if she wasn't part of the conversation. I am going to miss my grandmother so very much. Im going to miss her cute laugh, her silly remarks, her fiesty personality and most of all her unconditional love. I know she loved us all so very much, and she did all she could with all that she had. I know the day WILL come when we will see a healthier, happier, and stronger Ann Giannini. A day we will NEVER have to say good-bye again!!

I love you Grandma!

*Love,
Michele*

“ To My Mom: She has been my stronghold through the years of my good times and my bad. She has given me encouragement to stick close to Jehovah and be the good person she always told me I was. She was always there for us with the little she had, but with the biggest heart. She was a very determined woman who taught me to stive for all that I ever wanted. I love you dearly mom and will always hold you close until that wonderful day when we will all be reunited right here, on a Paradise Earth as God intended from the beginning. Knowing your at peace now and not suffering anymore, is what will keep us content until we see you again. Love you, Marie

“ Marie, Cindy, Elliot and family,

It was a joy to see Sister Gianinni at the hospital. It reminded me of the many times she came up to Nick and myself at the assemblies with a warm smile on her face. It was her joy to be with her friends; to be among Jehovah's people. And Jehovah will give her the requests of her heart!

May you continue to gain strength from our happy hope!

“ Noni,

My heart is filled with good memories and I will always remember you. I will miss you very much, and I know that everyone else who has known you will also miss you. I am glad that I have the hope of being able to see you again and one day share more memories.

Love your Grandson,

Daniel

“ Marie,

I know you are comforted in the knowledge that you will be reunited with your mother someday in peace and perfection we will finally fit into that beautiful flowered outfit!. The past few weeks have been difficult and I'm sure your mother is so proud of your strength and faith. I sorry that I will be unable to attend the service on Saturday but will be thinking of you as always. Please call if there is anything I can do.

“ Dear Mom~

I make this tribute to you in behalf of all the love that you have shown to me through the years. Through all the laughter and the tears we have had many special times together that will live in my memory forever. I draw comfort in knowing that you are in Jehovah Gods loving care right now and Mom until we meet again your love will continue to glow and warm my heart as I will often think of you...

I LOVE YOU~

“ Dear Marie, Cindy Rose & Joe

Diane and I would like to express the sorrow we feel for the loss of your Mom, Ann. I know no words can heal your pain at this time, but we all look to the Hope you as well as your Mom have. that wonderful hope when we will see her in Jehovah's new system. The scripture rings true at that time when no resident will say I am sick or no more pain or even death will be gone forever.

We love you Cindy Rose & Marie and our prayers are with you on this sad occasion.

Love always

Tony, Diane, and Mima
