“ We will always remember our dear Ann, a caring and loving woman who will always be remembered. We shared many fun times at family gatherings with Ann and our Uncle Tony over the years, and she was like an aunt to us. We, and my mother Terry will miss her very much. Heaven has the sweetest angel. Our deepest sympathy for your loss.

Sincerely,

Leslie & Dan May, & Terry Piazza

“ Tootsie was a part of every family holiday and celebration for the past 40 years. She was a wonderful lady, kind and generous to all. Every child in her company was beautiful and delightful....every kitten a creature worth saving....every adult "a good person." She will be missed, but remembered with a smile. Sincerely, Jackie & Mark

“ I had the privilege to meet Annie at McDonald's in New Britain last year. She is the sweetest lady I have ever met. With her soft voice and loving ways, it was such a pleasure to be in her company. She will be missed terribly by her extended McDonald's family, as well as all that knew and loved her. RIP my sweet friend.....I love you.
