“ Steven and Gregory....our deepest sympathy and prayers are with you both. I have known your mom since my childhood, growing up in the Church. I will always remember how kind and caring she was. Even as we grew apart and older, she always kept in contact. Those memories will be held in our hearts forever.

“ Steven, Gregory so sorry for your loss. I adored your mom and will remember her infectious laugh. My mom and your mother shared so many wonderful memories especially the long weekends at the beach. My family and I were blessed to have her in our lives. I will miss her sweet kisses and the way she made me feel loved. She always be to me the brightest and warmest light in the room. I am happy the gang is all together now probably telling jokes and playing cards. Biggest Hugs. Christian Rao
