“ Anthony has been a part of our family for the past ten years. He was my daughters love, and they created our beautiful Amelia who brings everyone she meets joy...

Amelia has lost her Daddy at the tender age of seven, however Anthony will live on through her with his silliness and caring nature and her mothers smartness! It is a perfect combination. Rest easy Anthony! Your two girls will be ok... I'm sure that everyone will make sure of that.... Love you Ma . As that is what he called me . With love Lisa Thurston “ Becky and I are so sad to hear about Anthony. Becky and Anthony went through Sunday School and part of confirmation together. Several years ago she brought her daughter Sophia to church on Easter Sunday and Anthony, Heather and Amelia were there and they got to talk.

We have such dreams for our kids, but they don't always work out the way we thought they would. They leave a hole in our hearts that never goes away. It only gets easier to bear over time.

Your faith in God will get your family through this difficult time. Your friends and those of us at First Lutheran are here for you as support.

“ Nancy and Mickey,
I'm speechless as I read today's paper. I remember when Anthony was born, and the gorgeous little boy I watched grow each week at St Maurice. I was always struck by your love for him, how your face lit up with him. My heart goes out to you, and though no words can provide comfort enough, know that you are in my thoughts and prayers. Indeed his grandparents and Uncle Mark now hold him in their loving embrace.
