“ First my sympathies to Barry's family. How he "Loved" the holidays at his sister's house. He would always share stories of his family with me. We talked about the N Y Yankees of course! Oldies music, another favorite of Barry's. I would bring in my Oldies, now on CD's and we would play them at the West Side. Once we went visit Kathy and Lori at Sliders. I have many great memories of Barry. I'm so happy I was one of the lucky ones to have known him. We lost him way to early. I could have listened to a few more stories Barry.

“ Uncle Barry was a very special, unique man! I remember as a child thinking he looked like Jesus because he was the only person I knew with long hair! But as I grew older and talked with him more, I realized there was more to him than that, he was a kind and interesting man with many memories and experiences that he enjoyed sharing with everyone. He had a great sense of humor, and he was loved and will be missed by his family, and his friends as well. My husband Rob always enjoyed talking and joking with Barry, and we will surely miss his company this holiday, and for all the holidays to come. I am sure he is at peace now, and no longer in pain or discomfort, even though we wish he could still be with us.

“ My Uncle Barry was one of a kind. He loved his family, and yes-loved the yankees! He made our holidays extra special and always added commentary to the event, making us laugh through any dull moments. He was thankful for what he had in life, the simple things, and I know was very thankful for his family. He loved reliving the memories... "remember when" ..would always start most of his sentences when he was with his brothers Brian and Jeff, and his sister my mom Sue. I am thankful for the life he had, even though too short, and the time we got to spend with him. He will always be one of a kind in my book.

I love you Uncle Barry and you will be missed.

“ I started at Art Press in 1985, Barry was right there to welcome me, and who knew that 22 years later I still had a great friend. I have so many memories and still can't believe he is gone. From his rough exterior was such a teddy bear. I am glad I had the chance earlier this year to visit him and listen to his tapes he was so proud of. We walked down memory lane, like always. My heart will have a hole knowing he is gone and won't be calling in couple of months, but I can always keep the thoughts of him with me. To his family: I am very sorry for your loss, To the world: I wish everyone got to hear at least one of his stories. Love & miss you, Bar!!!!

“ My sympathy to Barry's family. I worked in the office at Art Press, not quite as long as Barry. Will always remember him out back at the press working away, doing a great job at whatever he had to print. Was sorry to hear of his passing.

“ I grew up in the Art Press as a little girl, my Uncle Tony owned it. I am sad to hear of his death! He was always kind, I remember his smile, always had a cup of coffee, and would tease me! Yet, he was always a friend never got mad. He was a great printer. I will never forget him.

“ I am so sorry to hear of Barry's passing. In my memories of Art Press, Barry is a staple. He was always at the big printing press on the bottom floor of the "shop". When I would come by after school when I was little or even in high school, Barry would always take the time to say hello and ask me how school was and how the boys were treating me. If he was busy and the machine was loud, he would always wave and smile at me. I will miss him!

“ I was so saddened to learn of Barry's passing. Barry was more than an employee of Art Press; he was part of our family. Barry never forgot the opportunity my Dad gave him coming out of high school - an opportunity that lasted 38 years! Beneath a gruff exterior was a heart of gold. He was a fiercely loyal employee, friend and - oh yes, Yankee fan. You will be missed Barry.
