“ Dear Deb, Jeff, and Bob: I was very sorry to hear of your (and our family's) loss of your beloved Mom. She was such a good and generous person and I'll forever be grateful for all the time that she and Paul helped us out by watching four little kids so often and providing those kids with some happy and lasting memories of times with Aunty Betty and Uncle Paul. She will be missed and I'm hoping that in your sorrow you will also be grateful for the fact that she suffers no more and her spirit is free. My condolences to you all.
