“ There are many, many memories, but the ones that stand out have to be Christmas growing up. Aunt Bev, Uncle Bob, grandma and cousins Scott and Todd would come to our house on Christmas Day every year. One of the highlights was always Bev's famous Christmas cake. I swear it would get more ridiculous every year. The cake would always be shaped in a Christmas tree and it would have bright green frosting and blobs of color for the Christmas ornaments. Sometimes, it was truly scary. But always delicious! Thank you for the memories, Aunte Bev. I will miss you.

*Dearest Scott,
My condolences to you and your family. I've only had the pleasure of meeting your mom once at your house during one of our fabulous tag sales in Rocky Hill. I'm glad I had the opportunity of meeting her even if it was just for a very short time. So sorry for your loss. Your friend, Monica*

“My name is Ellen Heinzmann Gryckiewicz, Beverly was my 1st cousin and besides me I believe the last of the Heinzmann's. We grow up not far from each other on East St in New Britain. Her Father and mine were brothers. I lived on a turkey farm and the brothers would have to tend to farm duties and that is when Bev and I would be together having fun. We stayed in touch through the years. I would always make a point of visiting with her each time we would come to Connecticut from either Virginia or North Carolina where we now live. I last see her after she moved from Southington to Plainville. She was sad because she could not have her pet pug where she was living then, he could only come to visit her. She was blessed that she had a friend that kept him. I have made a donation to the Connecticut Humane Society in her name. May the Lord Bless and Keep her. My Deepest Sympathy to Scott and Todd.

“ I will miss Bev. She was part of my growing up. I was 7 and she was 5 when we met. Great childhood memories when times were for childhood. Playing with dolls, playing like we were cowboys (Roy and Gene)and swinging on the swings my father made for me. Yes, I will miss her, she was part of the quilt which became my life. God rest in peace Beverly.

“ Whenever a holiday came around we would walk in the door and the first thing I would see is a big smile on Beverlys face followed by her laughter. She was always so pleasant to talk to. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all
