“ Beverly came into my life as the Mom of one of my long time childhood (and adult) friends. She was always chic, driving in her convertible, sun glasses on with her hair in a scarf and wearing Capri pants; quintessential 60's. She was Audrey Hepburn to her late husband Bill's Cary Grant. The Velej household on Butternut Lane is where we as kids in the neighborhood always seemed to congregate. For some reason the wallpaper in the ground level guest bathroom always resonated with me, decorated with reproductions of luggage stickers whose locations seemed so exotic to a pre-teen living in Berlin. It's such a small thing, but in its own way led me to many international destinations on my own. Thanks for allowing me to consider yours a home-away-from-home and being such a gracious Mom. Peace and love to you, Beverly, as your journey continues with the angels and Bill.

“ There are too many fond memories of our families togetherness. Every summer a month at the beach, pool parties and cookouts, Abbots and lobster, holidays and relaxing on the breezeway. Vodka in the summer and scotch in the winter. Last but not least, the “ Gabor Girls “ that included Nanny, you and my mom ❤️ love and miss you

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I've met your mom on several occasions and it was always a pleasure. Our beautiful angels left us both last week...may they be the best of friends in their new "life" as we continue to be the same here. With sympathy and love, "Didi" and Ernie ❤️🙏❤️
