“ Nick:
I am so sorry on the loss of Brenda. She was a sweetheart. I am also sorry for not being there. I am away this week and feel so useless and non-supportive.
When we saw Brenda at mass 2 weeks ago, I was told that Brenda was sick but I didn't realize how progressed the illness had become. My prayers are with you and your whole family. God Bless.

“ Nick, children, brothers, sisters & Uncle Pit 2
My deepest sympathy to each one of you during this time of pain and loss. I look back like it was just yesterday, after all these years of them coming up for their yearly visits. We never knew what each visit would bring, but we were sure she would make us laugh and get in some kind of trouble all in fun
Be assured she is no longer in pain. God bless you all.

“ *"I am standing on seashore
The ship spreads her sails to the morning breeze
And starts for the ocean*

*I stand watching her until she fades on the horizon
And someone at my side says,
“She is gone”
“Gone where?”*

The loss of sight is in me, not in her.

*Just at the moment when someone says, “She is gone,”
There are others who are watching her coming.
Other voices take up the glad shout,
“Here she comes”... And that is dying.*

“ There really are no words to describe Brenda she was larger than life and a great woman all the way till the end. I will miss her terribly and so will her grandchildren Ashley, Amanda, Trinity and Christopher J. Who i will keep her memory alive for. This is a great loss for all of us something that i cant even begin to explain. The pain will never completely go only time will make it better. I remember when Trinity was born she was there and for che che's birth too she will never know how much that ment to me. She was so proud to be there grandmother. she and Trinity became best friends and I will always love her for that for loving her so much for being a great grandmother to her and all the kids. To Nick you were and always will be in my eyes more than a husband to her I could only hope that one day someone will do for me a quarter of what you did for her you took such good care of her and i know it was hard and there is no way anyone can thank you for that. We all pray for her and hope that she has peace we all love her and she will be in our hearts forever God blese your soul Brenda and keep it forever. LOVE MARIA

“ Brenda, I miss you already, there will forever be a void in all of our lives.I know what people mean when they say, my heart is broken, because mine really hurts.Nothing will seem the same without you.I will miss running to the phone to tell you a funny joke and hearing you laugh and tell me what a nut I am.I will miss most, not having my other sister to grow old with and share memories with. God took you way to soon, we just didn't have the time to share all the things we should have.I will grieve the loss of you forever, this isn't suppose to happen.I can't search for a reason, because there just is not one good enough.When the hurt gets easier, and when I feel I can laugh again, I am going to do atleast one goofy thing a day for you, and I will know that you are in heaven, laughing and still calling me a nut. I love you and will miss you forever, rest in peace free of pain and suffering, and tell Mom I love her... Your sister forever, Lisa

“ To Nick and family,

I will always cherish the times Brenda and I had growing up, when her family would visit ours every summer for two weeks. We certainly had lots of fun and got into plenty of trouble. I will certainly miss her happy outlook on life and positive attitude. We better watch out cause she will be watching over us to make sure we stay out of trouble. MY prayers are with all of you.

“ My love goes out to Brenda, and all of our family from here in Iraq. She means so much to me. I say mean, because she lives in my heart. I'll never forget the times she took to speak with me in between my classes, and pour me a fresh hot cup of coffee while we chatted. Times such as those helped me to get by in tough times. I'm forever grateful. Through the Lord we will all be united once again. Peace be with you. Love Omar.
