Believe that God is counting every one of your tears and that Connie is free of pain. When you look into your beautiful grandchildren's eyes remember the love that you had for her and the legacy that she left behind for you. May God Bless you and ease your pain.*

“ Candy,
Worked with you for a while at N.B.T. You were a joy to work with, always smiling no matter how much you were going through. And not to long ago you told me you were going to get better cuz you were going to get back in your bus. Your attitude and strength through all of your struggle was enough to make anyone think there life really wasn't all that bad. You were so tuff. Iwas there with you last summer to share the news with Cierra and Ryan that you were in remission at Slopers and we all cried together. Now the fight is over , and you will be surely missed, Hopefully in time I can spend some time with cierra and Ryan, I would like to be there for them once they settle in, I will do that for you, and them. Love you Candy and I will never ever forget you. Love,
Kim

“ Candida:

I only met you a short time ago and immediately liked you. You were full of life and loved your kids. I truly enjoyed talking with you and getting to know you. You will be missed.

Ryan and Sierra,

You should know that your mom loved you both very very much and would have done anything in her power to be with you. My hope is that you know that. I will always think of you and pray that you find your own way during your life.

“ To Candy, Ryan and Sierra:

*Life is but a stopping place
A pause in what's to be
A resting place along the road
To sweet eternity.
We all have different journeys,
Different paths along the way,
We all were meant
to learn some things,
But never meant to stay...
Our destination is a place
Far greater than we know.
For some, the journey's quicker,
For some the journey's slow.
And when the journey finally ends,
We'll claim a great reward
And find an everlasting peace,
Together with the Lord.*

You will always be in our prayers and in our hearts.

“ Although we were not the best of friends, we were always friendly and spoke often, we worked together for several years at Dattco until she left to go to New Britain Transit.

I wanted to send my deepest sympathy to you her family and friends and hope that her passing takes away all the pain that she has encountered over the past few years with her illness.

May you all find the peace to recover quickly from her passing and find the strength to continue on with your own lives and help her children continue on without her.

CANDY : MAY YOU REST YOUR HEAD IN GODS LAP AND FEEL NO MORE PAIN. WATCH OUT FOR YOUR LITTLE ONES FOR THEY ARE LEFT HERE WITHOUT YOU AND NEED YOUR GUIDANCE.

You will be missed by so many.

“ My dearest Candy, Ryan and sierra,
We took the mountain and made our way to the top last year. Now my dear friend you have risen higher than any mountain we could climb. I pray for your children that all you wanted for them will be done all the mothers love you had for them will be known. You had to struggle all your life and now the struggle is ours to go on without your beautiful smile, your great laugh and tremendous ability to share the little you had with those in need. Rest well my friend let Gods love shine thru those mountains in our back yard so that we know you and our heavenly Father are watching over us. Thank you for the love you showed while driving our Adam to school I will never forget you. For Ryan and your precious little Sierra we pray the love of all will surround and protect them as you would have done. Love Patrese
