

Carmen Joseph D'Agostino

July 1, 1944 - November 24, 2024

Carmen Joseph D'Agostino, 80, of New Britain, CT, passed away peacefully with family by his side at the Hospital of Central Connecticut on Sunday, November 24, 2024.

Born on July 1, 1944, in New Britain CT, Carmen was a proud graduate of New Britain Senior High School (Class of 1962, co-captain of the Varsity Football team) and the University of Connecticut. A beloved community member and the proud owner of Burritt Music Store in New Britain, Carmen will be deeply missed by family, friends, and all who knew him.

Known as "CJ" to many, Carmen was a devoted husband, father, uncle, brother, and friend. He had a passion for hunting and fishing and continued his love of football after his playing days at UConn by supporting local sports as a booster for New Britain High School. Carmen was an avid reader with a particular love for Roman history. He was also a passionate traveler, immersing himself in foreign countries and cultures throughout his life.

Carmen is predeceased by his parents, Joseph and Fanny. He is survived by his loving wife, Eileen (Cowley); his dear sons, Matt and Marc; his sisters, Barbara D'Agostino and Ann Gineo (Wayne); and many nieces and nephews. He will also be missed by numerous lifelong friends.

A celebration of life for friends and family will be held at a later date, to be determined. Memorial donations may be made to Hospital for Special Care, 2150 Corbin Avenue, New Britain, CT 06053. The Carlson Funeral Home, New Britain is assisting with arrangements. Please share a memory or note of sympathy at www.carlsonfuneralhome.com

“ Dear Eileen and "boys",
I m so sorry for your tremendous loss. Carmen was such a special person and knew how to brighten up his friends and family..
He had that sparkle in his eyes and that boyish smile, that will forever stay in my heart.
I sure will miss him the next time I come over.
