

Caroline Dix Szymanowski

March 30, 1919 - February 3, 2010

Caroline Dix Szymanowski Carol Semnoski, 90, passed away peacefully on February 3, 2010, at the Jerome Home, New Britain. A life-long resident of New Britain, she was predeceased by her husband of 55 years, Severin, who died in 1992. Throughout her married life, Carol was an active volunteer at a local school and at South Congregational Church, where she was president of the Women's Association and served as a former church deaconess.

She is survived by her two sons and their wives, Gary and Joanne Semnoski and Paul and Frances Semnoski, all of Southington; a grandson, CDR David Semnoski, P.E., U.S.C.G. and his wife, Catherine, and their four sons, Jonathan, Thomas, Blake and David of Stafford, Virginia. She also leaves nieces.

Carol's family extends its gratitude to each and every staff member and her friends at the Jerome Home for their exceptional care and loving kindnesses. Funeral services will be on Saturday 11 AM at the Carlson Funeral Home, 45 Franklin Square, New Britain. A calling hour will be held at the funeral home Saturday morning starting at 10 AM until the time of the service. Burial at Fairview Cemetery, New Britain, will follow the funeral service. Memorial donations may be made to South Church, 90 Main Street, New Britain, CT 06051 or to Jerome Home, 975 Corbin Ave, New Britain, CT 06052. “ I just wanted to say what a beautiful woman Carol was. My sister, Tammy, and I were so sad to hear of her passing. We appreciate her taking my grandmother, Trudy Cherpak, under her wing when her memory first started failing. I know in the last year grandma doesn't remember her but my sister and I appreciate Carol helping her out. We will miss not seeing her on Wednesday.
