“ My heartfelt sympathies to Sue, Paul and Peter. Losing Aunt Bobbie is like losing my own mom, she had a big part in raising me, and who I am today I owe in part to her. My love of cooking and putting up my own food and sewing were inspired by her. She will be missed by many. I can see her now at a Bengtson family picnic on the other side. I know she is in good company.

“ *Bobbie, you will always be the culprit who started the chocolate cream pie "war" between Paul and myself -- for that fun I'm grateful. Phil of course just liked eating your pies.
We wish for you to rest peacefully in your new home with the Lord. God bless you all and may you remember Mom with happy thoughts and smiles.*

“ Aunt Bobbie, just typing her name brings a flood of memories and now tears. When I was a kid, Aunt Bobbie meant cousins, love, fun, the beach, crafts and treats. In adulthood she became a confidant, advisor, and dear friend. She was someone who was always there, sincerely cared, was always fair and objective and her wisdom guided many tough decisions. I will always appreciate the support she offered freely and the wonderful memories of the summer vacations on the Cape with she and my mom in the later years. Dream Whip, Shredded Wheat and Folgers Classic will always prompt fond memories of you Aunt Bobbie and you will be missed for the rest of my days. Enjoy your reunion with Uncle Wes and everyone else who had the opportunity this week to exclaim with great joy and anticipation "here she comes!" I will always love, respect and admire you. Goodbye for now, dear lady.

“ Paul, Peter, and Susan
We grew up calling your Mother, "Aunt Bobbie." We remember visiting your home as well as the home of your Aunt Evelyn. Aunt Bobbie visited us in Rocky Hill and occasionally brought the boys, Thomas and Donald, play guns from Colt's. Of course, back in the 50's, cowboy shows were the rage.

Aunt Bobbie and our Mother, Beth Bertha Davieau Gergler Dinardi had a wonderful friendship for over 60 years. Mom passed away five years ago and your Mother was with us. We are saddened by the passing of Aunt Bobbie. We know that she is in Heaven with her dear friend Beth.

“ Words can not express how I feel having just lost Bobbi's sister my Mom, Florence Tena Gronback. They were a very close family of which I am very proud to be a member. I was raised in their home as their youngest sister for the first part of my life and I feel like I have lost my sister. She has always been there for me. This is a great loss for us all.
