“ It is with sadness that we received word that the earthly pilgrimage of Kay Williams had come to an end. It was a double sorrow when we realized that we would not be available to attend her memorial service because of a former commitment.

The Bible instructs us to honor those to whom honor is due. Kay is such a person and, even while not being present, we stand to salute this great woman of faith and service. Being a Pastor myself, I know that no Minister endures long without a faithful helpmate and partner in ministry. We love you, Kay, for all the lives you touched, for the untold hours you surrendered your life with your husband so that he could pursue God's calling, for helping others become strong, for making a home for your children and giving yourself unreservedly to others. We salute you with glad and happy hearts for now you stand before your Savior to receive His welcome to that life which will know neither sorrow or end - a life far greater than anything you could have earned or achieved. Enjoy your reunion with Ralph and your life in the unqualified presence of the One Who is mighty, loving and kind. We'll be joining you shortly.

"And God raised us up with Christ and seated us with Him in the heavenly realms in Christ Jesus, in order that in the coming ages He might show the incomparable riches of His grace, expressed in His kindness to us in Christ Jesus. For it is by grace you have been saved, through faith - and this not from yourselves, it is the gift of God . . . " Eph.2:6-8

“ She was my other mother and my childrens grandmother. She was always there when I needed her. I will miss her.
