“ Dear Cathy..

*As the days & months go passing by,
a feeling of inner peace will descend,
and even tho I will never forget you,
they say the pain & grief will end.*

*I'll never hear your voice again,
nor will you knock upon my door,
and God, I am so grateful we talked on the phone only two days before.*

*I am comforted by the memories we made,
and I'm so pleased that we got to share
two absolutely wonderful sleepless "sleepovers"
in February when you were here.*

*We talked all nite into the sunrise.
We cried & we shared & we laughed... re-living our memories, our thoughts & our feelings....
mixing it up...the future, the present and the past.*

*I know you're with the angels now, free from worries & pain & fears.
What I don't know yet is how to go on without you....
Please tell me,
where do I go from here?*

*I will always feel your spirit watching over me,
and you will live forever in my heart,
and I thank God
for our lasting friendship....
how we connected, right from the start.*

I want to believe God's hand reached downward and took you Heaven without even a pause,

*and I hope you know nothing now, but peace and unconditional love...
Good-bye, my friend,
my favorite sister-in-law.
I will always love you...
Love, Sharon*

“ There has not been a day that I have not thought about you Auntie since you have passed. I still cannot rationalize what has happened and probably never will. I miss you already and I hope someday I will get to see you again. Love your Royetta :
