“ It was such a blessing and honor to get to know your mom/yaya over the years. She always had a smile and well wishes for everybody. We so loved her cooking and baking....the meatballs we would eat cold because we couldn't wait for them to heat, the spanakopita, the breads and cookies. There are so many great memories...but mostly I will miss the sparkle in her eyes and her smile whenever she was with her family. Now she is back with her lev...dancing and watching over her family. My deepest sympathies to her family and friends, we were all so lucky to know her.
