“ For Elsie and Family

When somebody dies, a cloud turns into an angel, and flies up to tell God to put another flower on the pillow. A bird gives the message back to the world, and sings a silent prayer that makes the rain cry. People disappear, but they never really go away. The spirits up there put the sun to bed, wake up the grass, and spin the earth in dizzy circles. Sometimes you can see them dancing in a cloud during the day-time, when they're suppose to be sleeping. They paint the rainbows and also the sunsets and make waves splash and tug at the tide. They toss shooting stars and listen to wishes. And when they sing wind-songs, they whisper to us, don't miss me too much. The view is nice and I'm doing just fine.

“ I worked with Charlie Jr. and his father and liked them both. I respected Charlie's demeanor and professionalism as well as his sense of humor. I will miss him.

“ Dear Elsie and family- Our prayers are with you and your family during this time. Charles was a great neighbor and he always had a wave and a smile for everyone. He will be sadly missed by all of us.

“ I work in the Maintemance Dept. for the school system and know none of the family personally. I just wanted to extend my deepest sympathy to you and let you know that I "thought a lot of Charlie", and you will be in my prayers.
