“ Dear Barb and Rick:

I was saddened to hear of your Mom's passing. I have wonderful memories of talking with her on our porch on Barbour Road. She was always so interested in my schooling. I played golf with her and your Dad at Stanley Golf Course--they both gave me needed lessons. Your Mom touched the lives of many and I count myself lucky to have known her in my life.

Warmly,

Tim Blair

“ Dear Rick, Barb and Family,

I am so sad to read about your Mom passing. She was a wonderful lady and Len and I had such good times with your Mom and Dad in the 60's, 70's and 80's. We played golf at Glastonbury Hills, Farmington and Hop Meadow, vacationed in the Bahama's and Florida and shared joys, trials and many good laughs. Len died in 2005 and at that time I heard that Charlie had passed 2001, but I didn't know where Carol had moved. Thank you for putting Carol's Obituary in the Hartford paper.
