“ My dear Godmother, Clare Wrobel, was always special to me. My Mom, Irma Orticari Van Deusen, loved her. They went to school together and my Mom's home was her home. I lost track of Clare a couple of years ago. My Mom died on February 13, 2013. We tried to reach out to Clare and did not hear back. We assumed she had either passed, or was in an assisted living facility. Saturday, I received the remembrance from Clare, right before my birthday, which she always remembered. She died on my Mom's birthday. Thank you so much to her niece Mary Ann for finding me and leaving me with this precious memory.

“ Dear Mary Ann, Steve and family,
I am deeply saddened to hear of Cioci Clare's passing. She was a wonderful, caring person and a very, very special Aunt. I will always remember that beautiful smile and the way her eyes would light up and twinkle. I will never forget the beautiful cards she sent for every holiday and birthday with all the X's and O's when she signed them with love. And her wonderful surprises, like coming over with the Capitol Lunch hot dogs for a treat and a chat! She always had a way of making me feel special.
I hope your happiest and fondest memories will guide you through your grief.
Bless you and love you Cioci Clare! Rest now and may God's love shine upon you.
My sincerest condolences,
Janet C. Casey
