“ I met Bohdan for the first time during my visit in the USA. It was 1988. Bohdan was waiting for me at the NY airport with his late father Piotr and brother Walter. I was scared, I came to unknown country, I didn't even know the language. But they welcomed me very warm and showed NY. They were helping me with everyday life. Bohdan also helped me with learning English. Our meetings during next visits in US were very nice, interesting. Bohdan was telling about US history as well as the country's problems. He was very curious about world. Now it is very tough time, but we will always remember the moments spent together. And I wish we remember all great and funny moments, because Bohdan would like us to do so. He will always stay in our memory as kind and helpful man. We miss you Bohdanciu. Our condolences to his brother Walter. Kamińscy - Poland
