“ David was my 1st birthday present. He would be my first call on our day. I'll now have to talk to him as I awake in my prayers and I know he'll answer me back. Don't worry Dave, Diane, Sarah, and Carrie will be ok. There are alot of us to make sure of that. We may not have talked as often as we should have, but I know you were there if needed. You were my brother and I'll always remember and love you.

“ I first met Dave while we were both attending St.Maurice Jr. High. He was always quick with a laugh and would help everyone. He was the same person while we attended Aquinas and was liked by all. The years might have passed but Dave remained the super guy he was.

Sincerely Yours,

“ While growing up Dave was the only father I was able to witness on a day to day basis. All of my closes families were sign Mom families... you know who you are. He was the only Father that I was able to watch and say... oh, so that's what a father does. And I think that he did a excellent job at that. If it wasn't for him I wouldn't be as fascinated with computers as I am today. After all, I went to my first computer show with him. And after writing this it's just about hit me how much I will truely miss him.

“ Carrie,
My thoughts and prayers are with you in this difficult time. My aunt gave me a prayer card when my grandfather passed away, and I thought I'd write it here for you to read. I love you!

*In Time of Loss
Lonely is the home without you
Life to us is not the same
All the world would be like heaven
If we could have you back again.*

*A light is from our household gone
A voice we loved is still
A place is vacant in our home
That never can be filled.*

*May God of Love and Mercy
Care our loved one who is gone
And bless with consolation
Those left to carry on.*

*How dearly we loved you
And prayed you might live
But Jesus just beckoned
And we had to give.*

*God gave us strength to bear it
And courage to fight the blow
What it has meant to lose you
God alone will only know.*

I'm here for you Carrie, if you need me...just call.

“ My dad was the greatest dad in the world. He seemed to be God in my eyes. I could ask him anything and he had an answer. When i was sad and upset he would bug me untill i broke down and told him what was wrong. When i was scared he was there for me. I miss him more than anything in the world. My life is incomplete but i shall move on. I am waiting for him to open the door with his lunch bad and empty soda bottles comeing home from Sears and saying "Howdy". And sitting down to dinner but to hear his stories of his day at work. While he drank his chocolate milk,he never ever drank white milk. He loved his crossword puzzles, am radio his compteer ans his WWE monday night raw and his desire to win the lotto like the rest of this world. All I have left is fond memories of my last 23 years of life that he has spent with me. I could not ask for a better life with a better family. And no matter what ever happens David will be my father for ever and ever and no one can take that away from me. Dad I WILL LOVE YOU FOREVER... Keep us safe.... and be waiting for me when my time comes..... I LOVE YOU

“It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone you love. And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk to, laugh with, or hold your loved one can be most difficult to bear. That pain is not necessarily erased by being told that your loved one is up in heaven. As most grieving persons will tell you, when death takes your child, your husband, your wife, your parent, your friend, it is truly what the Christian writer Paul called it, ‘the last enemy.’”

The Bible however, holds out a much different hope. The Bible writer Paul offered hope of relief from that ‘last enemy,’ death. He wrote: ‘Death is to be brought to nothing.’ ‘The last enemy to be abolished is death.’ 1 Corinthians 15:26, The New English Bible Why could Paul be so sure of that? Because he had been taught by one who had been raised from the dead, Jesus Christ.

Jesus Christ promised that millions now dead will live again on this earth and have the prospect of remaining on it forever under peaceful, paradisaic conditions. Jesus demonstrated in a powerful way that he is both willing and able to perform the resurrection.

Jesus was deeply grieved when he met a widow of Nain and saw her dead son. The Bible account tells us: ‘As Jesus got near the gate of the city Nain, why, lo! There was a dead man being carried out, the only-begotten son of his mother. Besides, she was a widow. A considerable crowd from the city was also with her. And when the Lord caught sight of her, he was moved with pity for her, and he said to her: ‘Stop weeping.’ With that he approached and touched the bier, and the bearers stood still, and he said: ‘Young man, I say to you, Get up!’ And the dead man sat up and started to speak, and he gave him to his mother. Now fear seized them all, and they began to glorify God, saying: ‘A great prophet has been raised up among us,’ and, God has turned his attention to his people.’”

Millions therefore can have the solid hope of seeing their loved ones alive again on earth but under very different circumstances. May David, your loved one be among them.

*Sincerely,
Ms. Floyd*
