

Deborah Simonides Anderson

August 15, 1963 - May 2, 2016

Deborah Simonides Anderson, 52, of New Britain, wife of Kevin R. Anderson, passed away Monday May 2, 2016 at Masonicare Hospice in Wallingford. A native and lifelong New Britain resident, she was daughter of the late Herman and Eleanor Zup Simonides. Deb attended New Britain Schools and worked in the Radiology Department at New Britain General Hospital for 18 years until 1992. She operated Debbie's Crafts and showed at many area craft shows. Deb was a member of St. Matthew's Lutheran Church in New Britain and loved helping with St. Matthew's Lutheran School Lunch Program. Debbie loved making cupcakes and chocolate covered Oreos.

Besides her husband Kevin, she leaves three children, Bryan Anderson, Matthew Anderson and Ashley Anderson all of New Britain; two brothers, Richard Simonides of New Britain, and Donald Simonides of Kensington; a sister-in-law, Tammy Simonides also of Kensington and their daughters, Carly and Cassie; several nieces, nephews and cousins.

The funeral and burial are private. There are no calling hours. Deb's family expresses sincere thanks to the staff of C-5 at Masonicare, as well as the Amato family and many devoted friends for their loving care. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Masonicare Hospice, 22 Masonic Avenue, Wallingford, CT 06492. Carlson Funeral Home, New Britain is assisting with arrangements. “ My deepest sympathies to the family of Sweet Debbie. She was such a warm and welcoming person and her smile could light up the room. I will miss our private chats and huge hugs. Our shared crafting and auction events will always be missing her there. Oreos will never be as sweet with the loss of our dear Debbie. Forever in my memory and heart.

“ Kevin, I was shocked when I heard of your wife's passing. I'm so sorry for your loss. Please extend my sympathy to all of your children. My prayers will be with you all. Deb will always be with you and the kids, no matter where you are. She is resting and free of pain in Heaven, and has her arms wrapped around you for support. God bless you all. My mom and siblings extend their sympathy.

“ My sincere condolences to both the Anderson and Simonides families.
Deb was a very special person in my life caring for my children Laurie and Karlee in my time of need on Greenwood Street, many years ago. Rest in Peace Sweet Deb
