“ Edith touched my heart when I brought her flowers from church. She introduced me to the aides as her "friend from church, but much younger than I." We chatted about her confirmation class, and some of the pastors, and her great love for First Lutheran. I looked through the confirmation photos until I found her picture. What a striking young woman! May she rest in peace.

“ Dear Carol and Bob
My Mother was visiting a few weeks ago and we were talking about your Mom and Dad and Baypath and how long we have been friends. Please accept our sincere sympathy.

Love, Cindi and Jack
