“ *My Aunt Edith,
I miss your friendship. I miss your great personality….always asking why Carol had to leave when I was thinking it, saying you missed her when I was always thinking it, me scolding you for over tipping when I needed to remind you that you didn’t have a job, never ever speaking in a whisper, always making me laugh, always eating breakfast before we met for breakfast, always reminding me I have a great family and to stay close to them, always telling me I’m a great person, always warning me I’m being watched from above for my spending so much time with you, always telling the staff I was your favorite neice, always telling the truth and never shocked when we spoke of the truth and most of all always making the best of every situation. I will miss you....always. Love donnamarie* “ Mom, when Sister Phyllis asked for something we are thankful about concerning you, I should have talked about the biggest, best, life-encompassing gift you have given me: my Catholic faith, my beliefs, and the example of getting involved and volunteering in my parish. Thank you; this has always been at the center of my life. You & Dad were wonderful mentors. love, Nan
