“ Dear Aunt Irene, Ricky and Ruthe, Michael and Doris, Gail Dad, Grandchildren, Great Grandchildren, Loved Ones and Family, Please accept my heartfelt condolences and prayers. I am so sorry to not be with you at this time. Thinking of Uncle Eddie and mourning his loss brings back so many memories, of Ukranian Christmases downstairs at Trinity Street, of Cindy the German Shepherd, the great fun we had at the lake especially my favorite- the cable he put up that we now would call a zip line- I always felt like it was just for me, Cabbage Pie and Bachi and Judgi, Michael and Leo and their BB guns, the attic room and that awesome chamber pot, and mostly all the stories I treasured as I would eavesdrop on all the older people as they shared their own memories. I always of course heard my Dad talk about how much Eddie meant to him and how much he admired him, as well as how much he was loved by Granny, Lucy and Grampa Stasky. I love you all, and miss you, especially now. Vivienne

“ Dear Irene & Family,

My sincerest sympathy on your loss. I will always remember "Uncle Ed's" sly smile and firm handshake. I appreciated that he made me feel welcome at family gatherings. I also enjoyed his keen sense of humor as well as the many stories he would tell. He will be missed.
