“ Dear John and Sterling,
I'm sorry to hear about the loss of your father. Please give my sympathy to your mom. I know it's been some time, since I've seen you both and your dad. I have a picture with your father and most everyone from the neighborhood in front of the Log Cabin restaurant, that sits on a shelf in my computer room. He's smiling and standing next to Greg Wedman, who has his arm around him.

John, do you remember the neighborhood Log Cabin get together? I have many fond memories of your dad and our early years in little league baseball. Everytime we met, he had a grin and would address me as Mr. Balavender, how's everything?

Sterling, remember when your dad would take us to Stanley Quarter Park where we netted turtles with a long bamboo pole? Those were great times, weren't they.

You were blessed to have a caring father and I know you'll miss him alot.

All my best, Ernie Balavender
