

Edward G. Malicki, Sr.

September 4, 1926 - November 23, 2018

Edward G. Malicki, Sr., 92, of New Britain, husband of the late Angela (Catucci) Malicki, passed away Friday (November 23, 2018) at his home. Born in Berlin, he lived in New Britain most of his life. Ed attended Teachers College of CT, now CCSU, but prior to college left high school early to proudly serve in the U.S. Navy during World War II. He was Personnel Director at Atlantic Machine Tool, later Textron Corporation, where he helped and touched the lives of many in the Polish community for 30 years before retiring in 1992. He was a member of St. Francis of Assisi Church in New Britain and the U.S.S. St. Paul Association.

Surviving are a daughter, Bonnie Perna and her husband Tony of Rocky Hill; four sons, Edward Malicki Jr. of New Britain; Brian Malicki and his wife Elsa of Wethersfield; Barry Malicki and his wife Sandy, also of Wethersfield; and Brad Malicki and his wife Cara of Rocky Hill; a sister, Ann Dobranzyski and her husband John of New Britain; 10 grandchildren, a great grandson, and many nieces and nephews. Ed was predeceased by two brothers, John Malicki, Jr. and Joseph Malicki; and a sister, Josephine Leavens.

Dad taught us all by his example the importance of a strong family bond and unconditional love for one another. Everyone that ever came through the door was greeted with a hug and a smile.

Funeral services are Wednesday 8:30 AM at Carlson Funeral Home, 45 Franklin Square, New Britain, followed by a Mass of Christian Burial 9:30 AM at St. Francis of Assisi Church, 1733 Stanley Street, New Britain. Burial with military honors will be in St. Mary Cemetery. Calling hours are Tuesday 5 to 8 PM at Carlson Funeral Home. “ You will always be in the hearts of so many, Uncle Eddy. Although I grew up without a father, I had great father figures in my life. Traditions I have and had with my child are some of the very things you shared with me when I was young. Watching your face light up when you look on your family, always making those around you smile and laugh. Life can be hard at times, you always made just a bit easier for the rest of us. Rest in peace Uncle. You will always be my hero.

“ Dear Pops,

I wanted to tell you that most of all I love you and that I truly am going to miss you. I was so blessed to have met you and grandma back when I first met Barry in 1998. You and grandma seemed to have welcomed and loved Josh and I right away. You accepted us into your beautiful family and our memories just grew from there with Corey Barry and all your other grandchildren. I have a loving mother and father and brothers of my own but your family soon became my second family. You always treated me as your own daughter and I truly appreciated it. The memories of all the holidays at both your home and all of ours will always remain in my heart forever. Now we need to carry on the Malicki traditions and it will be a honor to do that. We will always keep you and grandma in our hearts and I know you both will be there in spirit. You have done your job as a veteran, a husband, a father (father-n-law), grandfather and a great grandfather. Even though we will miss you here on earth so much, I am so happy you are reunited with grandma. May you both rest in peace eternally together. So long Pops until we meet again. I love you and "if I didn't I would be nuts". Say hi to grandma and tell her how much we love her.

*Love always,
Sandy*

“ Dear Pops,

So much to say that words could not hope to incapsulate. Thank you so much for all that you are, all that you've done, for all of us. Thank you for all of the precious memories, and wonderful moments of love shared. Let us honor our grief as it comes in waves, and let us cherish one another and the time that we have, just as Pops always wisely reminded us. "We made it again" he would say each and every time the family came together. You will be missed by all those who have been blessed to know you but this is not goodbye, only "so long" until we meet again. As much as my heart weighs heavy with sadness, it also sings a song of reunion and joy knowing that you and Grandma are together again. I love you Pops always, Rest in Peace...

“ Pops,

A Veteran, a father, a husband, and a grandfather. He is someone who has lived a full and wonderful life. In everyone's life they go through hardships and for Pops he has gone through hardships too. For example having not much money as a kid or going into the navy to fight the Japanese in World War 2 he has done just as much as anyone can and deserves to be at peace. Not to many people can say that they came back from war had a wife and kids, grandchildren and watched them all grow up. So I would say this is goodbye but its not and that is not what pops would want me to say its so long because one day we will all meet again in heaven just as pops met up again with grandma.

“ Dad,

I am so truly grateful to have had such a wonderful father throughout my life. You'll never know how much I appreciate the love, wisdom, and guidance you gave me and the sacrifices you made for your family and Country. Although we will miss you dearly, you will always be in our hearts and the traditions and values you taught us will live on. I miss you already. I love you. Please tell Mom we all love and miss her too.

Matthew 25:21- His master said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful servant. You have been faithful over a little; I will set you over much. Enter into the joy of your master.'

Love, Barry
