“ Uncle Ed was a treasure! Though I lost touch over the years it was so great to see him in North Carolina at Uncle John's services and see his sense of humor had not changed a bit. I was taken by how much fun he was having with his new motorized wheelchair. Instead of it being a burden, he turned it into a fun machine! He was constantly talking about all the cool maneuvers the chair could do and then he proceeded to demo them all. Always with a joke, a hearty laugh, and a smile. Just thinking about this is making me smile! Thanks Uncle Ed!

“ I will fondly remember Uncle Ed every morning as I get up, enjoy my coffee, and wish they had Words with Friends in Heaven. At times, we had as many as 10 games at a time running. There was always something comforting in knowing he was on the opposite side of the country, yet we had a daily connection. All my love to you Aunt Alice, Eddie, Allyson, and Bridget and the families. He will be greatly missed.

He always talked about how good you were and it truly brought joy to him everyday. Every once in a while he would brag about a word he got a lot of points on against you. Thank you for playing with him. That connection meant just as much to him!💕

“ Good morning Alice, Ed, and family. I am saddened to hear about the passing of Ed. Though we did not have many times to share one another's company, I will always remember Ed's infectious laugh, contagious sense of humor, passion for golf, and more than anything his love for his family. May He Rest in Pease. Alice and Ed my Prayers are with you and your family at this time and as my Dad always said. "Keep the Faith"
