

Elaine Kass

April 18, 1945 - November 25, 2015

Elaine Kass, 70, of Wethersfield, beloved wife of Vernon Frazer passed away November 25 after a courageous battle against melanoma. Born and raised in Hartford, she graduated from Weaver High School, received her B.A. degree from American International College and her M.P.A. from the University of Hartford. Before she retired, she worked at UConn Health Center as a grants administrator. After retiring, she advocated with strong conviction approving marijuana for medical use. Besides her husband, she leaves a son, Jonathan Duboff; two brothers, Gary Kass of Newtown and Stephen Kass of New Haven; and three nieces, Alison Kass; and Julia and Hannah Robinson-Kass. Instead of a funeral, the family will hold a memorial ceremony at a date to be announced. The Carlson Funeral Home, New Britain is assisting with arrangements. Please share a memory or note of sympathy by clicking on "Send Condolences" at the bottom of this page.

Tribute Wall

GK

“ to Vern, Steven, Gary and Jonathon,
I first met Elaine , in the early 70's , and thought she was a wonderful person,I am sorry that she has passed, my condolences to you.
Greg Kaminski

greg kaminski - September 20, 2016 at 12:00 AM

HH

“ Elaine was not only a Classmate of mine. I have known her since childhood. She was a wonderful and caring person.It was always such a pleasure to meet up with her on our Pizza Party get together socials. She will be missed. I wish to extend my sincere condolences to Vernon and her Son Jonathan along with all of her extended family.

Henry Hyman - September 20, 2016 at 12:00 AM

KN

“ Elaine was in my class at Weaver High School. She was a very kind and wonderful person. She will be greatly missed. My condolences to the family.

Kenneth Noar - September 20, 2016 at 12:00 AM

IS

“ So sorry to hear about Elaine. My thoughts are with you

irene smith - September 20, 2016 at 12:00 AM