“ I was so sorry to see Eleanor's obituary in the Hartford Courant. Eleanor and I grew up together. My father and her mother were cousins. Our families and Mabel and Henry and Violet spent a lot of time together. I was a bridesmaid at Eleanor and Harold's wedding as she was at mine. I have fond memories of those years. My sympathy to her family and friends.

“ Aunt Eleanor will be remembered as being very generous. All our good times at the shore. Her lovely wardrobe and beautiful jewelry. I'll see her again in heaven.
