“ Betty was the first person I met at Seven Cities. She offered to bring me some coffee the day I had my closing and I will never forget her kindness. And she was among the first to welcome my adopted son when I came home from Bulgaria with him. Ivan and I will never forget our friend Betty.

Condolences to Don and Brian.

“ To all of Betty's family: You have my sincerest condolences. I was fortunate enough to live right next door to Betty in Newington, CT. She always made me laugh and was a fun and interesting person to be around. There was never a dull moment with Betty around. She will be greatly missed and I am sure she has already made tons of friends in the sky. She is undoubtedly wasting no time enjoying her freedom from illness and pain. I can see it now. She is cruising around in a convertible with the top down while at the same time getting the "skinny" on all of her new friends and neighbors. I know she is in a better place and I look forward to being her neighbor once again. Sincerely, Jodi Powers - XoxoX
