

Elizabeth "Lib" Wierbicki

April 4, 1914 - January 6, 2005

Elizabeth "Lib" Wasik Wierbicki, 90, of Canton, a longtime New Britain resident, died Thursday January 6, 2005 at John Dempsey Hospital, Farmington. She was the widow of Walter Wierbicki, who died in 1983. A New Britain native, she lived in Canton the past six years, and worked at Hamilton Standard in Windsor Locks until her retirement in 1979. She was a member of Sacred Heart Church and St. Mary's Church, both in New Britain.

Surviving is a son, David Wierbicki and his wife Joanne of Burlington; three granddaughters, Jill Abrahams and her husband Kenneth of Natick, Mass; Kelly Lyn Frenette of Canton; Amy Beth Shaffer and her husband Joshua of West Hartford; five great grandchildren, Harry and Samuel Abrahams; David Frenette; Kate and Aidan Shaffer; a special niece, Maureen Cunningham of New Britain; as well as several other nieces and nephews.

Calling hours are Saturday morning 8:30 to 10:30 AM at Carlson Funeral Home, 45 Franklin Square, New Britain, followed by a Mass of Christian Burial 11 AM at Sacred Heart Church, Broad Street, New Britain. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Connecticut Hospice, 100 Double Beach Road, Branford, CT 06405. Please share a memory of Lib with her family on our online guestbook by clicking on "GUESTBOOK" at the bottom of this page.

“ To David: As neighbors in the village for many years, we would like to express our condolences for your loss. Your mother lived a long life but losing a mother is always difficult. May she rest in peace.
Roy and Anni Bech
To Kelly: You and I have not only been neighbors but for a number of years co-workers. I know how important family is to you and having your grandmother for so many years makes it more difficult. I want to express my deepest sympathy to you and your son David.
