“ Norma, Dawn and family,

If I have learned nothing else in the past year, the human spirit is tough and resilient, even in times of great sorrow. We find strength where we think there is none. We find it in our faith, our families and our friends. But most of all, we find it in our memories...

I have soooo many memories of your mother. She was my Aunt and my Godmother and one of the most honest women I have ever known. She never hesitated to let me know what she thought! :

When Todd and Troy were just babies/toddlers I spent a lot of time with her at the house on McKinley Drive and they remember her well! She was always there for me..

I feel your pain and I wish I could have been there with you all...

*Love & Hugs,
Karen*
