“ *Dear Ella and Todd, I was shocked to see your beautiful baby girl's obit in the paper. Words can't express how much my heart aches for you and your husband. Today, I went to see my dad's grave which is not too far from your baby girl and I stopped and said a prayer for her and for your family so you can eventually find some sense of peace of knowing you will meet again some day in heaven. Please remember, my thoughts and prayers will be with you every day.
Your daughter's flowers were beautiful. With all my love, Liz Jablonski.*

I am so sorry for the loss of your beautiful little Emaleigh. Although she was only on this earth for a short time she made such an impact. I am so thankful I got to meet her and get to know her sweet little personality. She was a fighter from the day she was born and is finally free from all the pain and struggles she faced on a daily basis.

I hope that all the love and support your receiving helps ease some of the pain you are all experiencing.

XOXO

“ My heart goes out to you. Emaleigh's short life has reminded us all of how fragile life is and how important it is to tell those you love how much you love them each and every day. What you become from this experience is all that is significant. This is the true meaning of life.... my thoughts and prayers are with you.
