

Emma Lillian Koerber

July 27, 1907 - August 1, 2003

Emma L. Koerber, 96, of Kensington and Cromwell, died Friday August 1, 2003 at Pilgrim Manor in Cromwell. A New Britain native and former resident, she moved to Kensington in 1971 and lived in Covenant Village, Cromwell since 1989. Emma was personal secretary to former Fafnir Bearing President Clarence Rosensweig, retiring in 1972. She was a member of St. Matthew's Lutheran Church; the church Altar Guild; the Lutheran Women's Missionary League; the German Junior League; the Women's Club of New Britain; and was a longtime volunteer at New Britain Memorial Hospital.

Surviving are 2 nephews, Warren Rival of Laconia, New Hampshire and Richard Rival of Aurora, Ohio; 3 grandnieces; 2 grandnephews; and several cousins. She was predeceased by a brother, Edward Koerber and 2 sisters, Loretta Rival and Eleanor Miller.

Funeral services are Wednesday 11 AM at St. Matthew's Lutheran Church, 99 Franklin Square, New Britain 06051. Burial will be in Fairview Cemetery.

Calling hours are Wednesday morning from 10 to 11 AM at St. Matthew's Lutheran Church. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Matt Rival Scholarship Fund c/o St. Matthew's Lutheran Church. The Carlson Funeral Home, New Britain is in charge of arrangements. Please share a memory of Emma with her family on our online guestbook by clicking "sign memorial guestbook" at the top or bottom of the page.