

Erma Piccoli Romitelli

November 21, 1909 - October 8, 2002

Erma M. "Noni" Piccoli Romitelli, 92, of Farmington, a former New Britain resident died Tuesday, October 8, 2002. Born in Vittorio Veneto, Italy on November 21, 1909, she lived in New Britain for 40 years before moving to Farmington 45 years ago. She was employed at Manchester Modes as a seamstress for 20 years retiring in 1972. Erma was a member of St. Ann's Church in New Britain, the Marchegion Society and the Italian Fraternal Society. Surviving are her daughter and son-in-law, Arlene and Alan Powers of Wethersfield, a sister and brother-in-law, Rita and Peter Marzi, a brother, Leo Piccoli and a brother-in-law, John Yuskis, all of New Britain, six grandchildren, Stephen and Rita Powers of Glastonbury, Gary and Diane Powers of Glastonbury, Colleen Powers of Newington, Randy and Joanne Romitelli of Simsbury, Daniel and Tommi Romitelli of Texas, Tamy and Steven D'Amato of Rhode Island, 11 great grandchildren and 15 nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by her husband Primo Romitelli, and a son Ramon Romitelli.

Noni, Auntie Erma, was a warm, loving and giving woman. She will always be remembered for her outstanding cooking and baking. She will be sadly missed by everyone who knew and loved her. Her blessing will remain forever with her family.

"May God Bless You and Keep You Healthy,
Happy and Out of Trouble, and When

You Are On The Road, Bring You Home Safe”

Funeral Services are Friday, 8:45 AM at Carlson Funeral Home, 45 Franklin Sq., New Britain followed by a Mass of Christian Burial 9:30 AM at St. Ann's Church. Burial will be in St. Mary Cemetery. Calling hours are Thursday 5 to 8 PM at the funeral home. Share a memory of Erma with her family on our online guestbook by clicking on "sign memorial guestbook" at the top of the page.

Tribute Wall

MR

“ I would like to send my deepest sympathies to the family of Erma. She was a wonderful women and will be greatly missed. I took care of Erma at Abbingdon of Newington. I have to say she was one of the most kindest, loving women that I ever met. She talked very lovingly about her family, she was very proud of them. You all were in her prayers daily. Sincerely Mary Ramsdell

Mary Ramsdell - September 20, 2016 at 12:00 AM

MF

“ It was always fun to talk to Randy and Joanne about the wonderful homemade pasta dishes "noni" would cook for her family.

Mariann & Bruce Fiori - September 20, 2016 at 12:00 AM

DV

“ Although we only met Noni once, she touched our lives forever when she laid her hands on our daughter and blessed her. As Diane told us, "Amy is set for life" because Noni has an "in" with God! Our deepest sympathies, prayers, and thoughts are with you all. Love, Deb, Tim & Amy Viens

Deb, Tim, & Amy Viens - September 20, 2016 at 12:00 AM

DS

“ We've all been blessed by Auntie Erma. May she greeted by all our past loved ones with open arms into heaven. We will miss her very much, especilly her cookies! Until we meet again...Lots of Love, Andres, Diane, Alexis and Brianna Sone

Diane and Andres Sone - September 20, 2016 at 12:00 AM

FC

“ our auntie erma will always be rememered for all her love to frank and i and my beautiful son frankie cathy and diane, andre,richard,brain,cari,alexis,brianna hugs and kisses to auntie erma in heaven as our guardian angel we love you so very much.

Frank & Shirley Corfiati - September 20, 2016 at 12:00 AM