“ Dear Aunt Eleanor,

Since I was little the family often talked about you. So even though we only had the opportunity to meet once, it feels like I have known you all my life. I am happy I had the chance to meet you and Uncle Bernt and your whole beautiful family in 2011. You will stay in our hearts. Rest in peace.

Love, Therese

“ Looking back over my life on Austin St, I cannot overlook my neighbors, the 'Anderson's'! Mr and Mrs, Linda, Debbie and Karen...such great people. So many times, playing near the fence between the two yards, the dads chatting over the fence, moms laundry floating in the breeze over the fence! To say good fences make good neighbors...this is true! Linda, Debbie and Karen, you have my deepest sympathies. Loosing mom is hard, such an emptiness, but the memories will fill your hearts with love and happiness in time. In our hearts we will always be neighbors. Linda, reach out when your ready..I am here to chat and share with you.

“ Grandma,

I love writing these memories because it always gives me an opportunity to look back on all of the wonderful times I had with my grandparents. Unfortunately, it also hurts writing these as it means that there will be no new memories to come. Thank you for always being a loving Grandma who gave me fudge pops and played in the pool with me when I was little. I know that you and Grandpa are up in Heaven playing Trouble right now. I hope that they have Family Feud on TV up there! I will always love you Grandma! Rest in Peace.

“ I send a memory to my lovely Aunt Eleonor. Met you only a couple of times, but you will allways stay in my heart. The last time in Jan 2011 is what I remember most of all. Happy to see you and Uncle Bernt and sad to leave you. Rest in peace Aunt Eleonor. Love Agneta
