“ Aunt Evelyn was the last sibling of my father, George Gingras' generation. She now joins him, her sister Alice and all of her brothers in heaven. They are at peace now.....leaving the next generation to carry on. We will try to make them proud. Love and heartfelt condolences to the Anderson Family.

“ We have enjoyed Evelyn's wit at the lunch table at Ledgecrest. She was a gem and a joy. Her sense of humor lit up the room. The family of Rhea Cashman, Patti, Michele and Gary

“ I have a lifetime of memories of Mrs. A. If I have to pick one, I guess it would be helping to make ornaments for St Paul's Christmas Craft fair. Elves with life saver bodies, cutting circles from old cards, gluing them on coffee cup lids. I love you and will miss you

“ Our deepest sympathy goes out to all of Evelyn's family. She was the last of my fathers siblings and only 1 of 2 of his sisters, I was ever graced to meet! I have many wonderful memories of Aunt Evelyn and Uncle John's visits to FL in the winter. She was such a kind, sweet, gentle woman and will be greatly missed. She was a blessed woman and we were blessed to have her for so long. She had a great reception and has joined her many family and friends that predeceased her. God Bless you Aunt Evelyn we "Celebrate Your Life"!! Love, Angel and Terry

Bruce and I send our sincere sympathy to all of you. Isn't it wonderful to have had your Mom so long? When I saw her last a few years ago with Janice out for lunch she was terrific. Enjoy wonderful memories. I often think of all of you at Svea Pond - those were great times. Sincerely, Kris & Bruce*
